SUPERMIND TEAM — INTERNAL ONLY

PART 01

September objectives.

- Open the affiliate door. Application page, script, sheet, ten automated emails. Go from 23 affiliates to 75 by October 1 — the constraint was never demand, it was that there was no way to sign up.
- Put ManyChat on Instagram today. 166,000 monthly views currently produce 428 website sessions. This is the cheapest revenue fix available to us.
- Get TikTok Shop live by September 15 with professional product assets, and the $2,500 media budget in motion before it reallocates.
- Ship three newsletters a week with a real voice, real photography and an affiliate story in every issue.
- Move the audience toward women — creator selection, casting, newsletter voice, and the collagen launch.
- Stand up both communities. WHOP for affiliates, Zion for community, everyone in both.
- Design and ship the physical objects — membership cards and the gift box.

PART 02

The content engine.

LAYER	WHAT WE CAPTURE	OWNER
1 • The making	Keys writing notes and packing boxes on camera. Founder-story content before a single box ships. One session a month.	Amechi films • Steve cuts
2 • Documented	Build-in-public — the list, the letters, the send-out day, the events.	Amechi
3 • They create	Affiliates post in their own voice. Their post is the campaign.	Affiliates
4 • AI reference	Generated UGC-style content showing creators what good looks like, produced by staff monthly.	Celina • SM-AFF-07
5 • Collaboration	Best content becomes collab posts — one post, two audiences. Winners boosted with permission.	Steve confirms Fridays
6 • The docu-profile	Top partners get the produced treatment. These are the ads.	Amechi

PRODUCTION CAPACITY

Kid Media Group: $300 for 25 reels — all-inclusive, high-definition camera, photographers, editing. That is $12 a reel, and it changes content volume from a budget question into a direction question. Brian's media company adds a second lane.

Product photography is Amechi's. Professional stills and motion of every SKU, women-first casting, shot to the World Bible. TikTok listings, the newsletter, the AI reference library and every ad depend on it existing.

INSTAGRAM AND THE DM

- Two-week content plan minimum, aligned to newsletter topics so the newsletter, the feed and the orders all say the same thing that week.
- A Keys-led rotation added to break up the AI content and Invest Fest reels.
- No prices in the feed. Content brings people in; the DM converts.
- ManyChat keyword on every post. Three flows: shop link, affiliate application, common product question.

PART 03

Meetings.

TUESDAY • GROWTH INITIATIVE CALL — 15-MINUTE
AFFILIATE BLOCK

- 01 Numbers (4 min) — Monday's scoreboard line. Applications, enrolled, active, revenue by platform, sessions, subscribers.
- 02 Blockers (3 min) — anything stopping shipment, approval or payout. Each gets an owner and a date before the meeting moves.
- 03 Calendar look-ahead (3 min) — what is coming in six weeks that we have not started.
- 04 Content pipeline (3 min) — newsletters queued, IG plan, collab posts pending.
- 05 Decisions (2 min) — Amechi's calls, and the two things that go to the board: budget changes and T3 commitments.

WEEKLY • CELINA × AMECHI DEEP WORK, 90 MIN

Where the program gets built rather than reported on — leads, campaigns, creator development, whatever this week's build is.

THURSDAY • AFFILIATE CONNECT CALL — 30 MIN

- Hosted in WHOP, recorded and posted within 24 hours. Fixed running order so it never needs planning:
- 01 Wins and leaderboard (5 min) — top three by name, first payouts, tier promotions.
 - 02 One product story (5 min) — so affiliates speak accurately without a script.
 - 03 The format of the week (10 min) — one thing converting now, with a real example.
 - 04 Open floor (10 min) — questions, page reviews.

Before closing: ask one affiliate for their story. That is the newsletter's Network slot, due weekly.

PRODUCT CALENDAR

PRODUCT	STATUS
Creatine packs	Just launched. Seeding to team and affiliates with a content request. TikTok launch SKU.
Gummies — 20,000 units	$6,000 cost, ~$24,000 profit potential, most-requested item. Sells through Shopify, Instagram, email and affiliate links. Not TikTok.
Collagen coffee — "Forever Young"	The women's formula, design complete, targeted before Black Friday. The campaign the audience pivot is built around.

GOLDWATER — A SIDE NOTE, NOT A WORKSTREAM

Keys' supplement catalog moving under Supermind Labs is a separate business track. Mariah would need to port the formulas and re-create the line before any of it is sellable. It is noted here only so nobody builds affiliate plans around a catalog that does not exist yet — revisit when the products do.

THE WOMEN'S PIVOT IN PRACTICE

- Gift-box tranches and TikTok invite batches run two-thirds women minimum.
- Product and lifestyle photography casts women first.
- The newsletter is written to a woman reader by default.
- PR runs two angles: Mariah as a Black woman founder in women's wellness, and Keys as the creator-led brand. Essence is the target for both.
- Keys drives the male side through his own brand and the workout collaborations he brings — that is his territory, not a program the team recruits into.

EVENTS PIPELINE

- Black on the Block ATL — Sept 13 and Oct 20. Mina or Brian to run; Ibrahim Strong for setup.
- Maryland, October — Sakara's event; coffee sponsorship for content.
- Supermind Breakfast Club — Keys' morning coffee meetup concept. Low cost, high content, and it runs as a distributed affiliate challenge too.
- Monthly hikes — posted in Zion, filmed, the most on-brand asset we own.
- Timbuktu ATL — Supreme's nonprofit collaboration. Keys wants a written proposal before anything moves.
