

PLANNING · THE SUPERMIND CALENDAR

What's coming, and when to start on it.

One internal calendar for the whole brand: the recurring rhythm, the commerce dates that decide Q4, the cultural moments this brand should own, and the lead times that mean we are early instead of scrambling. The column that matters most is the last one — most of these need work to start four to six weeks before the date itself.

EVERY QUARTER

- Product seeding to all Creator-tier affiliates and above.
- One flagship long-form piece — the newsletter's answer to Anima Mundi's history essays. The thing that buys authority.
- Docu-profile production — one Flagship affiliate gets the produced treatment.
- Platform review — what WHOP, Zion, TikTok and Collabs each actually produced. Cut what did not work.
- Target-list refresh — new research pass, new lanes, names that declined revisited.

THE RULE THAT MAKES A CALENDAR WORK

A date on the calendar is not the deadline — the lead time is. Every row in the sections that follow carries a "start by" column, and that is the date that goes in the shared calendar as a task. The event date goes in as an all-day marker so nobody is surprised by it.

Q4 2026 — the quarter that decides the year.

2027 — the annual brand calendar.

MONTH	DATES AND MOMENTS	OUR ANGLE	START BY
January	Dry January · New year reset · MLK Day (Jan 18)	The biggest owned moment of our year. "What I drink instead" is our natural territory and the sober-curious lane is wide open. Sober Black Girls Club partnership lands here — which is why the conversation opens in October.	Oct 2026
February	Black History Month · Valentine's Day	Founder story, origin, the history of coffee told properly. The Anima Mundi-style flagship essay belongs here. Chocolate for Valentine's.	Dec 2026
March	Women's History Month · International Women's Day (Mar 8) · Spring equinox	The month the audience pivot pays off. Every Tier A and B woman on the target list, one campaign. Mariah as founder front and centre.	Jan 2027
April	Stress Awareness Month · Earth Day (Apr 22) · Ramadan / Eid	Cognitive load and composure. Sourcing and sustainability. Suhoor and pre-dawn ritual content is genuinely on-brand.	Feb 2027
May	Mental Health Awareness Month · Mother's Day (May 9)	The category's proven moment — Olly launched Naomi Osaka here. Motherhood and wellness lane activates.	Mar 2027
June	Juneteenth (Jun 19) · Pride · Summer solstice	Ownership and freedom — the Keys register at full strength. Community events, hikes, the Breakfast Club outdoors.	Apr 2027
July	Summer programming · ESSENCE Festival (early July)	Essence relationship compounds here if the marketplace application lands. Iced and cold-brew formats.	May 2027
August	Black Business Month · Invest Fest	Invest Fest netted $12,825 in 2026 — more than the whole month's Shopify revenue. Book the 2027 activation by February. Black Business Month is our most natural cultural fit of the year.	Feb 2027
September	Back-to-routine · National Coffee Day (Sept 29) · Self-Care Awareness Month	The morning-ritual reset. Second-strongest new-habit moment after January.	Jul 2027
October	International Coffee Day (Oct 1) · World Mental Health Day (Oct 10)	Product education and the cognitive position.	Aug 2027
November	BFCM · Native American Heritage · Gratitude season	Commerce peak. Same playbook as 2026, run earlier.	Aug 2027
December	Gifting · Kwanzaa (Dec 26 – Jan 1) · The reset week	Kwanzaa's principles map onto the brand almost line for line — a seven-day content series writes itself.	Oct 2027

HOW TO ACTUALLY RUN THIS CALENDAR

- 01 Enter every date above in the shared team calendar today — the event as an all-day marker, the lead time as a task with an owner.
- 02 Colour-code by type: commerce, cultural, brand-owned, product, event, internal.
- 03 Review it at the top of every Tuesday call. "What is coming in the next six weeks that we have not started?"
- 04 Nothing goes on the calendar without an owner. A date with no name attached is a wish.
- 05 Confirm every third-party date — event organisers move things, and platform deal days shift year to year.
