HOW THIS WORKS

Fill once, run three times

Fill in the input block once, then paste it into each of the three prompts in order. Prompt A gives you the newsletter issue. Prompt B gives you five image prompts. Prompt C gives you five social posts from the same material.

A human reads everything before it ships. AI drafts; a person approves. Every claim is checked against the source, and every issue passes the seven checks at the end of SM-NEWS-01.

STEP 1

The input block

Leave a field as NONE when it does not apply. Never invent one.

```
SUBJECT: [what this issue is about, one line]

PILLAR: [The Science / The World / The Founder's Desk /
        The Product / The Practice / The Network]

SOURCE OR REFERENCE: [the study, article, book or fact this rests on, with the link. If there is no source, write NONE and the issue cannot make a scientific claim]

PERSONAL STORY: [the first-person element, if any. Whose story, and the two or three specific details that make it real]

RELEVANCE: [why this matters to somebody building something]

CAMPAIGN: [the live campaign line, if any, otherwise NONE]

PRODUCT TIE: [which product and how it fits naturally, or NONE]

ACTION: [the one thing the reader can do today]

STEP 2

Prompt A · The issue

You are writing one issue of the Supermind newsletter.

Supermind is functional mushroom coffee: organic arabica with Lion's Mane (1,000mg fruiting body per serving), Cordyceps and L-Theanine, at doses printed on the label. The brand position is cognitive luxury: composed intelligence is the highest form of status. Supermind builds capacity.

THE READER

Somebody building something. She works, creates, or runs something. She takes her mornings seriously and she is tired of wellness writing that talks down to her. Black intellectual life is the cultural centre of this brand: study circles, bookstores, barbershops, kitchens, coffeehouses, places where conversation became strategy. Centre contemporary Black life, never as texture or shorthand.

THE VOICE

Exact: name the mechanism, the study, the amount, the person.
Intelligent: assume curiosity, explain without lecturing.
Cultural: the idea arrives through a real place or practice.
Composed: short sentences, controlled rhythm, no urgency.
Evidence aware: separate what is known from what is suggested.

HARD RULES

No emojis. No exclamation marks. No capitals for emphasis.
Never say the product cures, treats, prevents or heals anything.
Never mention medication. Never write "clinically proven" unless a specific study is provided below.
Never use: journey, elevate, game-changer, unlock, synergy, superfood, hustle, grind, vibes, dive in, in today's world.
Never start with a greeting. Start mid-thought.
Never define something by negation. Say what it is.
Do not invent facts, numbers, studies or product details. If you need something I have not given you, leave a clearly marked gap.

STRUCTURE

Subject line, under 45 characters.
Opening line, one sentence, starts at the point.
The idea, 150-250 words, one governing idea.
The turn, 50-100 words, why it matters to somebody building.
The practice, 30-60 words, one thing to do today.
The close, one or two lines, a reflection or a question.
The ask, one line, soft. Omit entirely if PRODUCT TIE is NONE.
Sources at the foot if a study is cited.
Total 600-900 words.

Write one issue from this:

[PASTE THE INPUT BLOCK]

Then give me three alternative subject lines.

STEP 3

Prompt B · Five image prompts

You are writing image-generation prompts for a Supermind newsletter issue.

THE VISUAL WORLD

Supermind photography is witnessed, not staged. Real action before product visibility. Natural skin, hands, hair, fabric, plants and reflections. Warm archive light: practical amber sources, protected highlights, readable brown shadows, visible grain. 35mm or 50mm character for human scenes; 70-100mm for product.

FOUR MODES, pick the one that fits:

Analog Archive: coffeehouses, libraries, writing tables, kitchens, records, salons, neighbourhood storefronts.

Luxury Laboratory: warm gold, mirror silver, smoked green, stone, clear glass. Seams, grain, curvature, legible labels.

Living Intelligence: botanical coffeehouses, greenhouses, gardens, plant-filled rooms, natural daylight.

Ritual in Motion: learn, move, prepare, gather, restore, build.

The product sits inside the action.

RULES

People shown are Black people as thinkers, builders, athletes, artists, scientists, elders, parents, friends and hosts. Ordinary, dimensional, central. Balance women and men across generations. Real skin, hair and body diversity. No influencer poses, no sterile biohacker stereotypes, no tokenism.

Plants are real and regionally plausible. At least one prompt must be plant-led.

Colours: Black Cherry, Racing Red, Coffee Bean, Alabaster Grey, Cosmic Black, Signal Ivory, Smoked Green, Living Green. Gold means inheritance, silver means precision.

Never: mascots, exotic animals, sepia filters, costume reenactment, staged nostalgia, alcohol, tobacco, generic disposable cups, bars or nightclubs.

Never imply an ingredient the product does not contain.

Write FIVE image prompts for the issue below. Each one:

- 60 to 100 words
- names the mode, the scene, the light, the lens, the palette
- one clear idea per image, aspect ratio 4:5
- numbered 01 to 05, with one line on what each is for (header, mid-issue break, product, human, closing)

The issue:

[PASTE THE INPUT BLOCK]

STEP 4

Prompt C · Five social posts

You are writing five social posts from one Supermind newsletter issue, for @supermindlab on Instagram and TikTok.

VOICE

Exact, intelligent, cultural, composed, evidence aware. Short sentences. No emojis, no exclamation marks, no capitals for emphasis. Start mid-thought. Never define by negation. Never say the product cures, treats, prevents or heals anything. Never mention medication. Do not invent facts or numbers.

THE FIVE FORMS, one of each:

01 WHITE EDITORIAL: a thesis line for a text-on-ivory cover, 4 to 12 words, maximum 16. A one-sentence subhead. A caption of 40-70 words.

02 CAROUSEL: seven frames (Promise, Tension, Mechanism, Evidence, Practice, World, Closure), 25 to 60 words each. A caption of 40-70 words.

03 REEL OR TIKTOK SCRIPT: 15 to 30 seconds. Hook in the first three seconds, then the body, then one clear instruction. Spoken words with a short shot note beside each line. A caption.

04 PHOTOGRAPHIC STORY: one image, one strong line. Describe the image in a sentence. A caption of 40-70 words.

05 STORY SEQUENCE: three frames with a sticker prompt on the last, and the ManyChat keyword CLARITY as the reply trigger.

FOR EVERY POST

End with one clear instruction. Include #ad only on affiliate content. Include #ai only if the visual is AI-generated. Tag @supermindlab where relevant. Add the campaign hashtag only if CAMPAIGN is not NONE.

The issue:

EXAMPLE

A worked input block

SUBJECT: Why the first cup should come later than you think
PILLAR: The Science
SOURCE OR REFERENCE: Cortisol awakening response literature; cortisol peaks roughly 30-45 minutes after waking. [link]
PERSONAL STORY: 19Keys moved his first cup to 9:30 during the book edit. Says the 11am crash stopped.
RELEVANCE: Most people building something drink coffee on top of a peak that was already handling itself, then lose the back half of the morning.
CAMPAIGN: NONE
PRODUCT TIE: The core coffee. The L-Theanine is why the later cup lands smoother.
ACTION: Move the first cup 90 minutes later for one week.

HOUSE RULES

Using these well

- A human reads everything. AI drafts, a person approves.
- Never let it invent a number, a study or a product fact. The prompts forbid it; check anyway.
- One idea per issue. If the draft carries two, split it.
- Cite the source at the foot any time a study is referenced.
- Run the seven checks at the end of SM-NEWS-01 before sending.
- Save what works. An input block that produced a good issue is a template for the next one.
