THREE LEVELS

Answer, batch, or call

LEVEL	WHAT IT COVERS	WHAT YOU DO
Answer it	Anything already written in this library or on the public site	Reply within one business day. Use SM-SOP-26
Batch it	Anything needing a decision that can wait a few days	Holding reply straight away, then bring it to the L10 or the team thread
Call it	The red alerts below	Text or call B. Amechi now

RED ALERTS

Call immediately

- An affiliate published a medical claim, or any post that names a condition or a medication.
- A lesson, document or public post contains a medical claim.
- A payment went out wrong, or an affiliate says they were not paid.
- A locked Vault folder opened for a Member.
- The store, Whop or the Creator Network site is down.
- Press, a lawyer, a regulator or a large retailer made contact.
- An affiliate is abusive, or an affiliate conflict is public.
- Anything involving 19Keys.

HOLDING REPLY

What to say while you wait

Good question. I want to give you the right answer rather than a fast one, so I am checking with the team. You will have it by Thursday.

Then actually come back by Thursday. A holding reply that never lands is worse than silence.

OWNERS

Who decides what

SUBJECT	DECIDES
Program rules, tiers, exceptions, creator partnerships	B. Amechi
Inventory, budget, print, events, PR, payout terms	Mariah
Codes in Shopify, reporting, newsletter scheduling	Pam
Ziion platform access	Antoine
Anything for 19Keys	B. Amechi, always

DISCIPLINE

Batch, do not drip

Keep one running list. Questions arriving one at a time cost more attention than the answers are worth, and they slow the person answering. The exception is the red-alert list above, which never waits.
